

DFD 0 Entities	This diagram illustrates the level 0 DFD of a University Management System. It treats the entire University Management System as a (Process 0.0) and defines how it interacts with external entities. Central Process 0.0 : University Management System: The core system that handles all logic.
Student	Users who consume education services.
Admin	Staff members who manage the system and curriculum.
Data Flows	Student System :Input: The student provides ID, personal info, course selections, and payment info.
Output	The system returns schedules, transcripts, receipts, and alerts.
Admin System	The admin provides curriculum data, faculty info, and policy updates.
Output	The system returns enrollment reports, academic stats, and system logs.